LUNAR NEW YEAR EVE CELEBRATION

Monday February 16, 2026 (from 8pm-10pm)

& MĀGHA PŪJĀ CEREMONY

Sunday March 8, 2026 (from 9am-1pm)

February 4th, 2026

Dear devotees and friends:

With the arrival of the Lunar New Year of the Horse, we would like to invite you and your family members to come and join our New Year Eve Celebration on Monday night February 16, 2026 at the Mahāsatipaṭṭhāna Meditation Center. Our visiting meditation teacher, Sayadaw U Thuzana, will be here to guide this celebration, as followed:

- 8 - 9pm Candle lights offering and fire-works (in the Holy Garden)
- 9 - 10pm Chanting, taking precepts, Dhamma talk, meditation,
New Year blessings from the Sanghas, and sharing merits
(in the Meditation Hall)

We also would like to invite you and your family to attend the Māgha Pūjā Ceremony at our center on Sunday March 8, 2026. This is an occasion for members of the Sanghas and Buddhist devotees to gather and commemorate 2 important events: 1) the Great Gathering of 1,250 Ehi Bhikkhus during the Buddha time; and 2) the occasion the Buddha promised Māra that he would enter Parinibbāna within three months. The program for the ceremony will be as followed:

- 8 - 9am Arrivals of Sanghas members and devotees
- 9:10am Reciting Protective chanting and taking Precepts
- 9:25am Dhamma talk on the meanings of Māgha Pūjā
Short meditation practice
Offering of requisites to the Sanghas
The Sanghas recite blessings and
Sharing of merits
- 10:40am The Sanghas go alms
The devotees and guests take lunch
- 1:00pm Completion

For additional information please contact the center organizers at (352) 533-8495 or email to: dainiemxutv@gmail.com.

Happy Lunar New Year of The Horse!
