INVITATION FOR VOLUNTEERS

October 22, 2026

Dear Dhamma devotees and friends,

We are pleased to announce that since the land was offered to the organization in 2014, and with constructions began in 2017, the Mahāsatipaṭṭhāna Meditation Center now has officially become fully operational with the hostings of various ceremonies, 4 seasonal 10-days retreats, bi-weekly one-day retreats, and Dhamma & meditation classes throughout the year.

We would like to express our deepest gratitude to our teacher, the Most Venerable Sayadawgyi Khippapañño Kim Trieu and to all the Sanghas for their compassions and guidances, and also to all the devotees, volunteers, and friends near and far, for their great supports in various ways.

Our next phase is to maintain the center for long term sustainability, to ensure that monks, nuns, devotees, meditators, and guests who come to the center may get to practice the Dhamma with comfort and peace. Being a 22-acre meditation and Holy Garden complex, the center always requires the needs for continuous care and upkeeping. We are inviting the Sanghas, devotees and friends, near or far, to join in your support as volunteers for the following tasks:

* Cooking/ preping & serving (especially during the seasonal 10-day retreats)
* Dishwashing/ kitchen & dining rooms cleaning (especially during the seasonal 10-day retreats)
* Gardening/ lawn mowing & leaves blowing
* Housekeeping/ rooms and buildings cleaning (especially for the seasonal 10-day retreats)
* Minor building & home repairing
* Office & computer administering
* Translating from English to Vietnamese during Dhamma talks and interviews.
* Drone video operating
* Miscellaneous

While supporting and serving, the volunteers can stay at the center to join in Dhamma learning and meditation practices.with the monks and nuns. For more information on how you can support, please check our website at: dainiemxutv.org or email to Puṇṇa Bhikkhu at: dainiemxutv@gmail.com

May these great merits support you on your path to Enlightenment.
May these merits be shared to deities, ancestors, parents, teachers, relatives, friends, and all beings.
May all beings be well, happy, peaceful, and safe.

Sādhu sādhu sādhu
